

Contents

	Introduction	x
I	The importance of brand identity
Chapter one	No escape!	2
Chapter two	It's the stories we tell	8
	None genuine without this signature	9
	A logoless company is a faceless man	10
	Seen by millions	11
	Only if the Queen agrees	12
	Symbols transcend boundaries	13
	Identity design as part of our language	18
	Rethinking the importance of brand identity	21
Chapter three	Elements of iconic design	22
	Keep it simple	22
	Make it relevant	25
	Incorporate tradition	28
	Aim for distinction	30
	Commit to memory	33
	Think small	34
	Focus on one thing	36
	The seven ingredients in your signature dish	38
	Remember that rules are made to be broken	39
II	The process of design
Chapter four	Laying the groundwork	42
	Shaking out the jitters	42
	It's all in the design brief	43
	Gathering preliminary information	44
	Asking the tougher questions	45
	Give your client time and space	48

	But maintain the focus	48
	Homework time	48
	Assembling the design brief	49
	A mission and some objectives hold the key	50
	Field research to the rescue	53
	Bringing the details of client discussions to life	56
	Culling the adjectives supplied by the client	59
Chapter five	Skirting the hazards of a redesign	62
	What are the reasons for rebranding?	63
	Don't squeeze too hard	63
	When emotions run high	67
	Answers often lie in focus groups	68
	From "unresponsive" to "caring"	69
	Maybe just some tweaking?	72
	Remember your manners	75
Chapter six	Pricing design	76
	The design pricing formula	76
	Hourly rates or a set fee?	81
	Handling print costs	82
	Receipt of a down payment	84
	The money exchange	85
	Spec work	87
	Everyone makes mistakes	89
Chapter seven	From pencil to PDF	90
	Mind-mapping	90
	The fundamental necessity of the sketchpad	96
	The Tenth Commandment	98
	Pinning the map	102
	Internationally recognized	104
	No set time	107
	Dress for success	109
	Black and white before color	111
	Where Photoshop comes into play	114
	The pen is mightier than the mouse	116

Chapter eight	The art of the conversation	118
	Deal with the decision-maker	119
	Rule #1: Conspire to help	124
	Rule #2: Avoid intermediation	126
	Rule #3: Take control	128
	Rule #4: Keep the committee involved	132
	Don't forget to under-promise and then over-deliver	134
	Swallow that pride	136
III	Keep the fires burning
Chapter nine	Staying motivated	144
	Never stop learning	145
	Be four years ahead	147
	Create for you	148
	Step away from the computer	149
	Balance your life	150
	Journey back in time	150
	Show relentless desire	151
	But don't overwork yourself	151
	We all get stuck, no matter who we are	152
	Start on the right foot, and stay on the right foot	153
	Find common ground	153
	Deadline looming	154
	Think laterally	155
	Improve how you communicate	156
	Manage your expectations	156
	Always design	157
	Follow your bliss	157
	Not everyone is as fortunate	159
Chapter ten	Your questions answered	160
	Similar looking logos	160
	Rights of use	161

Online portfolio creation	162
Seal the deal	167
Overseas clients	168
How many concepts?	169
Friends and family	170
Design revisions	171
Project time frames	172
Researching the competition	173
Internships	173
Worst client project	174
Tools of the trade	175
Handling the workload	176
Who owns what?	177

Chapter eleven

25 practical logo design tips	178
1. Questions, questions, questions	178
2. Understand print costs	179
3. Expect the unexpected	179
4. A logo doesn't need to say what a company does	180
5. Not every logo needs a mark	180
6. One thing to remember	181
7. Don't neglect the sketchpad	182
8. Leave trends to the fashion industry	183
9. Step away from Photoshop	183
10. Work in black and white	184
11. Keep it relevant	184
12. Remember legibility	185
13. Be consistent	185
14. Match the type to the mark	186
15. Offer a single-color version	186
16. Pay attention to contrast	187
17. Aid recognition	187
18. Test at a variety of sizes	187
19. Reverse it	188
20. Turn it upside down	188
21. Consider trademarking your design	189

	22. Don't neglect the substrate	190
	23. Don't be afraid of mistakes	190
	24. A logo is not a brand	190
	25. Remember, it's a two-way process	191
Design resources	Help from elsewhere	192
	Graphic design blogs	192
	Iconic designers	193
	Recommended books	194
Index	Looking for something?	198